Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

Applications from ex-offenders are welcomed and will be considered on their merit. Convictions that are irrelevant to this job will not be taken into account. You are required to disclose any convictions, which are not 'spent' by virtue of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974.

Have you been convicted of a criminal offence, which is not spent, as defined in the above Act?

Yes No

If yes, please provide the following Details:

Date(s)

Offence(s)

Sentence(s) passed:

The Rehabilitation of offenders Act does not apply to certain specified professions, nor does it apply to posts which involve contact with children, young people or vulnerable adults. In any of these cases you should state all past convictions, including any that are spent:

Date(s)

Offence(s)

Sentence(s) passed:

If you are applying for a post which involves contact with either children or vulnerable adults, please also confirm that you are not listed on either of the following (as appropriate):

I confirm that I am not listed on the children's barred list

Or

I confirm that I am not listed on the adults' barred list

And

I declare that I have no past convictions, cautions or bind-overs and no pending cases affecting why I might be considered unsuitable to work with children/vulnerable adults.

The information you provide will be treated as strictly confidential and will be considered only in relation to the job for which you are applying

Equal Opportunities Monitoring

We aim to be an equal opportunities employer, and our policy is that job applicants and employees receive equal treatment regardless of sex, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age, marital status or civil partnership, pregnancy / maternity or gender reassignment, where any of these cannot be shown to be a requirement of the job concerned. Recruitment, selection and promotion procedures will be monitored to ensure that individuals are selected, promoted and treated on the basis of their relevant merits and abilities.

To assist us in monitoring the operation of our equal opportunities policy, and for no other reason, please answer the following questions.
